Dean Curtis Kelemecz

July 4, 1989 – March 7, 2021

Dean Curtis Kelemecz, born July 4, 1989, beloved son, brother, and fiancé, fell asleep in the Lord Sunday March 7, 2021. He survived by his parents Roger & Joyce (Annie) Kelemecz, sister Dr. Allison (Dr. Daniel) Ursu, brothers Daniel and Dylan Kelemecz, the love of his life, his fiancé Kelly Kage, and many uncles, aunts, and cousins, whom he cherished. He is preceded by his grandparents, Bill (Joyce) Marusich, and Frank (Anne) Kelemecz. Dean was a loving, kind, compassionate person who always had a smile, could talk with anyone, and make everyone laugh. He was proud of his achievements in network security and computer forensics. Dean cherished the relationships he made, particularly growing up at St. Michael's. He was passionate about history, aerospace, computers, formula one, and food. A Divine Liturgy and Funeral Service will be celebrated by Very Rev. Protopresbyter Fr. James Dutko, Saturday, March 13, 2021, 10am, at St. Michael's Orthodox Church, Binghamton, NY. In lieu of flowers, please consider a contribution in Dean's honor to St. Michael's Church, 296 Clinton St. Binghamton, NY 13905. Dean is irreplaceable and will be remembered always by his family for enriching their lives with joy and laughter. He will truly live on through his selfless gift of life of organ donation.

Kindly share your reflections of Dean on his guestbook at Chopyak-Scheider.com.
