After their time on the West Coast, when Dad was in the Army, while raising a family she returned to assorted part-time jobs, including her own business selling Square Dance clothing to full-time employment and after many years, retirement from General Electric in Westover. She was a lifelong member of SS Cyril and Method Church, active volunteer and member of the Altar Rosary making rosaries that were donated to local hospitals.

She lived life, loved flowers, cooking, baking, travelling and family. There was always a candy dish in the living room and coffee and a baked treat in the kitchen. She will be missed by many.

Putano on Monday at 9:30 am at SS Cyril and Method Church, 148 Clinton Street, Binghamton where the family will receive friends Monday 8:30am until the time of the service.
